MIGRATION

The workshop will run for 2 days and will take place on June 11-12, 2018 in Barcelona.

This workshop, jointly organized by the Barcelona GSE and INSIDE-MOVE, aims at bringing together top researchers working on different topics related to migration so as to discuss state of the art recent research in the field. Last years program can be found <https://www.barcelonagse.eu/summer-forum/workshop-migration>.

In order to foster interaction, and high level discussion, only a small number of papers will be included in the final program (around 12-15).

Labour Economics, the official journal of the European Association of Labour Economists (EALE), will publish a special issue on “The Economics of Migration: Labour Market Impacts and Migration Policies” following the workshop. The submission process is open to articles presented at the workshop as well as other original contributions provided they fit within the thematic scope of the special issue. Guest editors: Francesco Fasani (QMUL), Joan Llull (UAB, MOVE, and Barcelona GSE) and Cristina Tealdi (Heriot-Watt University).
